A serious injury can have a significant impact on your health, your finances and your family life. If your injury was caused as a result of someone's negligent or reckless actions, then you have the right to pursue monetary compensation for your suffering.

we care for you

Our Firm

Henry Carus & Associates is a Melbourne based law firm with 30 years experience in personal injury law.

Having handled many complex cases and worked in both the insurance and medical industry, we make sure that our unique experience, knowledge and insight is on your side - delivering the best possible outcome for you and winning over 98% of our cases.

All of our work is done on a "no win, no charge" basis, guaranteeing that you do not pay any fees until we have won your case.

To ensure that you fully understand your legal rights, we offer a no obligation, free telephone advice service and a free initial one-on-one consultation.

With four convenient office locations around Victoria (Melbourne CBD, Brighton, Altona, Box Hill), we also offer home or hospital visits and can arrange an interpreter if required.

Our Services

Our services are tailored for clients who have suffered an injury in the workplace, in a car accident or in a public place.

We can help you get the best possible outcome out of your:

- WorkCover claim
- TAC claim
- Public Liability claim

At Henry Carus & Associates, we take the time to understand your individual concerns and goals, and then create a plan of action that will achieve your desired outcomes. We explain the legal process in detail to allow us to work together in achieving the best possible outcome.

As a specialist law firm, we also have legal practitioners accredited by the Law Institute of Victoria in recognition of their exceptional knowledge in personal injury law.
