Australian Migration Law (VISAS)

Australia's current migration program places emphasis on skilled migrants – i.e. migrants with a good track record in business, an appropriate level of education or trade qualifications and occupational skills or outstanding talents in a particular field. Additionally, investment in business in Australia is encouraged. Half of the places in the program are allocated to these skilled migrants. The balance is made up of family - sponsored migrants Spouse – Marriage or de facto, parents migration. Most migrants come to Australia as either skilled migrants, business migrants, employer nominated migrants or family migrants.

AR.LAW.Services is expert in:

- 1 Skilled Migration
- 2 Business Migration
- 3 Employer Nominated Migration
- 4 Family Migration – Spouse, Parent
- 5 Refugee, Humanitarian or Special Assistance Migration
- 6 Temporary Visas
